EDINBURGH View from the Castle.
Oilette

LL5936

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Edinburgh from the Castle A glorious view can be obtained of the city from the battlements of the Castle. On the left of the picture on the Castle itself is seen an iron cage used for beacons. Above this cage and facing the Mound are the Royal Institution and National Gallery, and immediately above the latter is the Scott Monument.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Printed in England.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" "EDINBURGH." Series I. [Regd.] Postcard 7321

From "EDINBURGH," illustrated by F. Fullelove, R.I. (A. & C. Black).

CTP212.9